Further, the parties agree that the running of any and all applicable statutes of limitations and/or repose and any other defenses or limitations on actions, including but not limited to, the time limitations for filing a lawsuit or a criminal complaint for arising from the failure to make payment of earned income taxes, shall be tolled and suspended during the time period of the attached schedule. The period of tolling shall not be considered to constitute or give rise to a defense of laches or any other time-based doctrine or defense, rule, law or statute otherwise limiting the right of the York Adams Tax Bureau to preserve and prosecute any claim for the failure to make payment of earned income taxes. Nothing in this Agreement shall have the effect of reviving any claims that are otherwise barred by any statute of limitations and/or repose or and any other similar rule of law or equity prior to the date of this agreement. Either party hereto may terminate the tolling of claims by giving at least sixty (60) days' written notice of its termination to the other party. Until the sixty-first (61st) day after such notice of termination is given, the tolling if claims shall remain in full force and effect.

In the event the amount due hereunder is not paid in full upon the expiration of the time period set forth in the attached schedule, the parties hereto shall retain any and all legal or equitable remedies and defenses they may have or may believe they have arising from or related to the failure to remit payment of earned income taxes.

It is further agreed that the first payment on the attached schedule shall be due at the time of the acceptance of this contract and instrument and shall cause this instrument to be in full force and effect and shall legally bind the parties hereto irrevocably.
